January 2026

Player of the Year (POY) – How It Works

The Player of the Year (POY) award recognizes the strongest overall performance by a player across an entire year of regular-season games. Championship events are not included in POY calculations.

POY Scoring

POY Score = SUM(Points Earned During the Year in regular season games)

POY Update Schedule

POY scores are updated and published on the following schedule:
• After Game 4 of each season
• After Game 8 of each season (end of season)

All POY standings shown during the year are provisional. Final POY results are determined only after the last game of the year.

Where POY Is Published

Provisional POY standings are shown on the league website throughout the year.